

POGIL Content SI Rubric

First Author:
Title:

		0	1	2	3	Strengths	Improvements
	Content Learning Objectives					What are the strengths of this activity in developing the objectives? Explain why they are strengths.	How could this activity be improved for developing the objectives? Be specific and explain why your suggestions would be improvements.
1a	Stated clearly on Activity Form so reviewer can assess whether content objectives have been achieved .
1b	No more than three key concepts .
1c	Activity is likely to lead students to accomplish the content objectives.
	Pedagogic Structure					What are the strengths of this activity in terms of structure and clarity? Explain why they are strengths.	How could the structure and clarity be improved? Be specific and explain why your suggestions would be improvements.
2a	Model being explored is a reliable set of data or exemplars , giving students enough evidence to develop clear inferences.
2b	Questions sequenced to build concepts and avoid conceptual leaps so that minimal facilitator intervention is required.
2c	Application or practice is given to extend ideas in a meaningful and logical manner .
2d	There is a clear learning cycle structure of exploration, critical thinking leading to concept development, practice of idea.
	Self-Assessment					Strengths regarding assessment? Why?	Improvements regarding assessment? How?
3a	Students assess what they have learned in terms of content .

Assessment:

- 0 No explicit evidence regarding this indicator.
- 1 Some evidence of meeting this goal, but significant improvement needed.
- 2 Satisfactory evidence of meeting this goal, and improvements should be considered.
- 3 Substantial or exemplary evidence of meeting this goal. Improvements are not essential.